

Completion

Life is about setting a goal and complete it. Once you complete one goal you'll set a new one or you might have multiple goals in the same time. One of the goal most people want to complete is finding someone for their life -- couples, best friend, twins, family etc.

Virtual Reality

To accomplish the idea, this piece will be moving spheres in virtual reality world. Two or more users control there sphere to find each other in generative maze. The one who can find one completes while others lose.
